Innovative thinking, upholding high standards, fostering collaboration, and being passionate about education’s transformative power, then take a look at State College of Florida. We are a culturally rich and diverse College committed to quality instruction and student success in an inclusive, collegial and dynamic environment. We are recognized for quality graduates whose successes are testament to the dedication of instructional and support staff. In our 54th year, we are the region’s first and largest institution of higher education, welcoming some 30,000 students annually. In addition to a growing online presence, our modern campuses border the Gulf of Mexico on Southwest Florida’s “Cultural Coast.”
