Meet some of State College of Florida’s highly qualified, caring professors who share a passion for teaching that inspires students to succeed in the classroom and beyond.

Jennifer Quick
Language and Literature Instructor
Teaches: Public Speaking and Interpersonal Communication
Experience: 5 years at SCF
Extracurricular: Faculty mentor on the SCF Intercollegiate Athletic Committee; speech judge for the Optimist Club in Sarasota; volunteer for Keep Manatee Beautiful with SCF’s Earth Club and Wildlife Rehabilitation Incorporated; member of National Communication Association and Association of American Colleges and Universities; recipient of Phi Theta Kappa Five Star of Excellence Award and Five Year Recognition Award; presenter of “Unmasking Whiteness” at 2001 World Intercultural Communication Conference in Miami.

Del Jacobs
Film Production Technology Professor and Program Director
Teaches: Appreciation of Film, History of Motion Pictures, Mass Media and Popular Culture, Foundations of Story
Experience: 22 years at SCF
Extracurricular: SCF Film Club advisor, member of Sarasota Film Commission Advisory Board; lecturer/facilitator for Pelican Cove Cinema Club; organizer/developer of Film Rush 2012; author of books “Interrogating the Image: Movies and the World of Film and Television,” and “Revisioning Film Traditions: The Pseudo-Documentary and the NeoWestern”; director and producer of documentary films “Ft. Hamer: A Bridge to the Past or Future?” and “Leon Merian: Notes on a Life”; member of Kappa Tau Alpha National Honor Society in Journalism and Mass Communications, Phi Kappa Phi and Alpha Sigma Nu National Jesuit Honor Society.

“I help students improve their confidence by letting them know that I believe in them and that they are capable. Then, I allow them to evolve as unique individuals within the classroom.”

“For me, the most rewarding teaching experience is witnessing students’ success. Whether they get a great grade on a paper or come up with an original thought or explanation, I am so proud that they are learning as a result of my guidance and interaction with them.”

Read more about SCF’s dedicated professors at scf.edu/ProfessorSpotlight