The Florida student driver’s license law providing school enrollment and attendance requirements is applicable to State College of Florida, Manatee - Sarasota students, provided: 1) the student is a minor at least 16 years of age but younger than 18 years of age and 2) the student has been admitted to State College of Florida, Manatee - Sarasota educational program which has been approved by a district school board as an alternative to enrollment in a district high school.

The College will provide written notification to the district school board if the student fails to comply with the attendance requirements of the program.