The grounds of the College shall be landscaped and maintained in a manner that will insure the health and safety of its users, provide an esthetically pleasing environment conductive to learning and social interaction, and insure its preservation to the extent possible within the limitations of the college resources and priorities for use of resources.